

» Top10 to Watch in Emerging European Markets — Winner IBA Group.

From a "group" of software developers to an "international group" that provides software development, migration, product maintenance, support, distribution, consulting, system integration and many more, IBA Group is now the largest IT-services provider in the Eastern Europe.

IBA Group is software-development company with headquarters in the Czech Republic, development centers in Belarus and the Czech Republic and business offices in the U.S. and Germany. Its capabilities span the project lifecycle, from concept and implementation to maintenance, support and upgrade. With a staff of more than 1,600 professionals, IBA Group is the largest IT service provider in Eastern Europe.

IBA Group offers a range of services including IT consulting, development, migration, maintenance and support with specialization in mainframe systems and applications, Internet technologies and e-business solutions, SAP solutions and other ERP systems and Lotus technologies. It serves clients in more than 30 countries across industries, including banking, transport, telecommunication, manufacturing, healthcare, trade, and public sectors. Its business partners include IBM, Microsoft, SAP, Sun Microsystems and AT&T. IBA provides its customers with efficient and cost-effective solutions that enhance their business opportunities.

Read full survey.