

» Community Relations*Cooperation with Universities

Our cooperation with the Gomel State University (GSU) is developing in the following directions: Corporative Information System Laboratory was created in the faculty of Automated Information Processing Systems for joined development in Lotus Notes and other systems. Students from high schools come to our company to take training. Afterwards, they become our full-time employees. Joint scientific research and the latest high-tech developments are the focus of cooperation. IBA-Gomel demonstrates its commitment to good corporate citizenship by providing financial support to talented students. Computing and network equipment for joint IBA-Gomel and Gomel University laboratories Fiber optic connection to the IBA-Gomel unsecured LAN Software at reduced prices for universities Sponsorship of summer student scientific conferences.